I Wish I Could Tell a Story

By A.G.
Sonoma County Juvenile Hall

I wish I could tell a story
One where I was happy and have it be true

But there are some things
you choose to keep on hiding
That wouldn't hurt so much if you stopped denying all that has happened

I've been lost before,
and still found my way
I want to move on,
yet all I do is stay

I know it's going to be the same
so I think it's time for a change
I wasn't sure then, but now I do

28

Telling a Story

In response to "I Wish I Could Tell a Story"
By a high school student from Richmond, Ca.

Telling a story is like a river flowing

Light and flowing
Gentle and calm

Telling a story
is giving someone a piece of your reality
of your point of view

Telling a story
is like finding a way
a way out of the ground
the hole you once got yourself into

Telling your story
and seeing eye to eye

Break the Cycle

By I
Sonoma County Juvenile Hall

I am broken hearted, I am open-hearted
I am tired, I am drained
I am resented, I am alone
I am in grieving, I am in mourning
I may be locked up, I may be free
I may fail, I may succeed
I may be numb, I may be emotional
I may be looked up to,
I may be looked down upon
I will break the cycle
I will make it out
I will be myself no matter what

I Am

Response to, "Breaking the Cycle"
Middle School Student from Hayward, Ca.

I am stubborn, I am firm
I am persistent, I am constant
I am shy, I am soft spoken
I am tacky, I am weird
I may fly, I may fall
I may trip, I may walk along
As if obstacles are foreign
I may laugh, I may cry
I will embrace those falls
I will accept the trips
I will wipe the tears and face my fears
I will be myself, at least I'll always try

When a Tear Escapes

By Broken Poetry
Sonoma County Juvenile Hall

When a tear escapes...

I know I lost to fear
I don't bear to live
I'm hit like a deer
I've lost hope in the mirror
I know it tastes like a nasty beer
I lose sight in my soul as a seer
I know I'm a broken gear
My life ending is near
I will soon not be here
I will then be called weird

I know my eyes are gray and dull,
In the dark I wish I could see like a mole
Instead of looking
In the dark bottomless hole
Never ever going to need anyone else
Just been playing the cards I've been dealt
This is my life I ain't ask for help

56

When I Have No More Tears To Lose

In Response to "When the Tear Escapes"
By a middle school student from Hayward, Ca

When I have no more tears to lose...

I know I've won that day
I won't have to act in the play
I won't catch anymore strays
I'll see all of the sun's rays
I'll remember how to pray
I'll exit the darkness of this cave
I'll escape
I'll watch the sky change
Colors and fade from gray
I'll relearn how to laugh and play

I know my eyes are red and stained
From tears parading down my face
Until the salt has replaced my smile.
I need myself to get myself
My cards are on the table
I won't bet on anyone else

Failure

By Broken Poetry
Sonoma County Juvenile Hall

Looking at it
At a loss for words
Like a spear through the heart
Like a knife through the throat
You failed
Why did you try?
Why didn't you do better?
You disgrace
You mistake
You failure
Why don't you cry
Like the little person you are?
Forget about it
Never think about it
Pretend it never happened
Just like you always do

38

Not a Failure

In response to "Failure"
By a high school student from Richmond, Ca.

Pretend it never happened like you always do
Suck it up like you always have
Don't let people see the little person you are
Hide under the darkness you make yourself
You're disgusting
You're a failure
You're nothing
You're a mistake
But you are not alone
You're not a failure
You are something
You are somebody
Don't give up
Because everyone has been there
And you are not the only one
I have been through it
So are you really alone?

JUVENILE JUSTICE REALIGNMENT BLOCK GRANT ANNUAL PLAN

MAIN CONTACT FOR PLAN

Date: TBD
County Name: San Mateo
Contact Name: John T. Keene, Chief Probation Officer
Telephone Number: 650-312-5520
E-mail Address: jkeene@smcgov.org

BACKGROUND AND INSTRUCTIONS:

Welfare and Institutions Code (WIC) Sections 1990 through 1995 establish the Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant (JJRBG) program, which supports county-based care, custody, and supervision of youth who were previously eligible for commitment to the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) prior to its closure. Section 1995, which governs the county planning process, was amended by Assembly Bill 118 (Chapter 96, Statutes of 2025). This template reflects those amendments, which take effect January 1, 2026. All statutory references in this document are to the law as amended. The statutory language can be found here.

To be eligible for funding allocations associated with this grant program, counties shall create a subcommittee of the multiagency juvenile justice coordinating council to develop a plan describing the facilities, programs, placements, services, supervision, and reentry strategies that are needed to provide appropriate rehabilitative services for realigned youth. (Welf. & Inst. Code § 1995(a).) OYCR may request revisions as necessary or request completion of the required statutory elements in the plan prior to final acceptance of the plan. (Welf. & Inst. Code § 1995 (f).) Plans and the date of their acceptance will be posted to the Office of Youth and Community Restoration website. (Welf. & Inst. Code § 1995(g).)

There are ten sections to the plan:

- Part 1: Subcommittee Composition
- Part 2: Target Population
- Part 3: Programs and Services
- Part 4: Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant Funds
- Part 5: Facility Plan
- Part 6: Retaining the Target Population in the Juvenile Justice System

PART 2: TARGET POPULATION (WELF. & INST. CODE § 1995(D)(1))

Briefly describe the County’s realignment target population supported by the block grant.

The “target population” is defined as “youth who were eligible for commitment to the Division of Juvenile Justice prior to its closure and shall further be defined as persons who are adjudicated to be a ward of the juvenile court based on an offense described in subdivision (b) of Section 707 or an offense described in Section 290.008 of the Penal Code.” (Welf. & Inst. Code § 1990(b))

2021-2025 Target Population Data

To understand the target population for the grant program, the San Mateo County Probation Department compiled data from the past five calendar years (2021-2025) on persons who were 1) eligible for commitment to the Division of Juvenile Justice before its closure, and/or 2) adjudicated to be a ward of the juvenile court based on a 707(b) and/or 290.008 offense. The key findings are summarized below.

- There were 90 adjudications for 707(b) and/or 290.008 crimes in the County between Jan. 1, 2021, and Dec. 31, 2025 – an average of 18 per year.
- The cases fall into the following categories based on the most serious adjudicated offense: Assault (48), robbery (27), homicide (4), attempted homicide (3), and sex offenses (8).
- 93% of defendants identified as male; 7% as female.
- 66% of defendants identified as Hispanic or Latino; 16% Black; 4% Native Hawaiian or Pacific Islander; 7% other race; 4% White; and 3% Asian.
- Average age upon adjudication: 16 years old.
- Placements data will be updated if disposition is available prior to submittal: Youth Services Center-Juvenile Hall (29); community supervision (18); electronic monitoring (21); transferred to home county (6); still awaiting disposition as of April 1, 2026 (7); Secure Youth Treatment Facility (6); Residential treatment program (2); Deferred Entry of Judgement (1).
- As of Dec. 31, 2025, six individuals adjudicated in San Mateo County have been placed into the County’s Secure Youth Treatment Facility.
- As of Dec. 31, 2025, two individuals adjudicated in another county have been placed into San Mateo County’s Secure Youth Treatment Facility after the case was transferred here pending disposition.

Youth Services Center-Juvenile Hall

Juvenile justice-involved minors and nonminors subject to secure confinement in San Mateo County are housed at the Youth Services Center-Juvenile Hall, which also serves as the County’s Secure Youth Treatment Facility. The Juvenile Hall opened in 2006 with a capacity for 180 youth – although its average daily population was just 30 in fiscal year 2024-25. Its campus consists of an admissions unit, seven living units (two of which are in use regularly), a family visitation room, a multi-sensory de-escalation room, a kitchen, a multipurpose room that houses career technical education learning labs, a health and dental clinic, a fully accredited school, a gym, multiple gardens, and an outdoor recreation area.

Therapeutic Detention Model

The County’s detention practice historically has included the use of a therapeutic detention model. This model combines the philosophy of secure detention with comprehensive resources that aid in the individual’s rehabilitation and successful reentry. These resources include health and dental services, mental health and substance abuse treatment, the County’s Court Schools Program, and evidence-based programs focusing on cognitive skills, job readiness training, domestic violence prevention, yoga and creative arts, mindfulness training, and more. Resources are provided in partnership with county agencies (e.g., Health, Behavioral Health and Recovery Services, the San Mateo County Office of Education, and the San Mateo County Community College District) and various community-based organizations.

Secure Track (SOARR)

In 2021, the County established a secure track program, Success and Opportunities Aspiring Readiness for Reentry (SOARR), to serve system-involved minors and nonminors who would previously have been eligible for placement at the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ). In 2022, the County issued a request for proposals (RFP) to fund programs and services supporting youth in Juvenile Hall and the SOARR program, with a particular focus on long-term, transition-aged youth.

This procurement resulted in 12 contracts with seven community-based organizations to deliver a diverse array of in-custody and reentry-focused services. Programming includes music instruction, enhanced case management, reentry and employment supports, writing and magazine publishing, mindfulness and meditation classes, job-readiness training, and computer skills education, among others (see table below for additional detail).

Several services are specifically tailored to the needs of transition-aged youth. For example, Fresh Lifelines for Youth provides law-related education, career and postsecondary workshops, and in-custody case management and coaching for youth in the secure track program. In addition, Fresh Lifelines for Youth is leading a design process to expand and refine services for SOARR minors and nonminors serving long-term commitments in Juvenile Hall.

While the 2022 RFP did not yield viable proposals for every identified service gap, the County remains committed to addressing unmet needs through alternative procurement strategies. In fiscal year 2024–25, the County executed new contracts with Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse and Addiction Education Society, Inc. to provide healthy relationships workshops and substance use prevention programming for the target population.

The contracts awarded through the 2022 RFP are scheduled to expire on June 30, 2026. To ensure continuity of services and support long-term planning, the Probation Department launched a new RFP in Fall 2025 and is currently in the process of selecting providers to deliver programs and services for minors and non-minors in Juvenile Hall and the SOARR program. This competitive process is intended to fund a new round of contracts, allowing the County to sustain effective programming while aligning services with evolving needs, identified service gaps, and best practices for serving transition-aged youth.

Less Restrictive Programs (LRPs)

San Mateo County is committed to working with the courts and secure-track youth and young adults to facilitate individualized placements in less restrictive programs (LRPs) to support successful rehabilitation, reentry, and community safety goals. LRPs may include:

- Furlough-Based Programs within Juvenile Hall for school, work, internships, volunteering, and home passes.
- Community-Based Options such as residential programs, fire camp training (e.g., Pine Grove Youth Conservation Camp), transitional academic programs through California State University and University of California systems, and at-home support.
- Individualized Reentry Services to provide additional support based on everyone's needs.

LRP Models in Use or Development in Other Counties:

1. Community-Based Residential Program

- Operated by a nongovernmental organization (NGO) through a probation department contract.
- Services provided in an NGO-owned or rented home/apartment with probation oversight.

2. County-Operated Residential Program

- Located in a county-owned or rented home/apartment.
- Services provided directly by the probation department or in partnership with NGOs or community-based organizations (CBOs).
- Consideration: Local zoning regulations may affect program operations.

3. At-Home LRP Model

- Youth/young adults remain in their familial home.
- May include electronic monitoring if court-ordered under WIC 875(f)(2).
- Additional supportive services may be provided.

4. Pine Grove Fire Camp

- A CDCR-operated residential training program in Amador County.
- Serves eligible male youth/young adults (ages 18-25).
- San Mateo County entered into a three-year agreement with CDCR, approved in January 2026, to enable potential placement of eligible youth and young adults at Pine Grove, subject to program eligibility criteria, available capacity, and court approval.

5. California Conservation Corps (CCC)

- A program under the California Natural Resources Agency.
- Offers residential and non-residential environmental service opportunities.

- Serves male and female youth/young adults (ages 18-25) statewide.

San Mateo County's Approach

The County will tailor each LRP placement to the individual's needs and goals, working in collaboration with the youth/young adult, the courts, and their multidisciplinary support team. When needed, the County will also endeavor to connect secure-track wards with transitional housing services as part of their step-down process to ensure stability and continuity of care.

Tablets in the Juvenile Hall

In fiscal year 2023-24, the County began issuing tablet computers to minors and nonminors inside the Juvenile Hall. The tablets allow learners to access educational and entertainment content as well as connect with friends and families through a voice calling app to improve the chances of a successful re-entry. Educational programs include financial literacy, basic work skills, high school equivalency programs, college preparation, substance abuse treatment, work skills and OSHA certifications, cognitive behavioral therapy, and more. The entertainment library features a rotating, curated selection of movies, radio stations, TED Talks, and audiobooks. As of now, residents have access to tablets outside school hours and are allowed at least 1 hour of call time each day with pre-approved contacts. Educational programs are accessible whenever the tablets are in use. Entertainment is available on weekday afternoons and evenings, and most of the day on weekends. The County is partnering with Orijin, PBC in this project.

Secondary Education, College Preparation

The San Mateo County Office of Education provides a student-centered, standards-based curriculum for students inside the Juvenile Hall. This curriculum is augmented through a unique and innovative partnership with the San Mateo County Community College District through Project Change, which provides students with opportunities to develop college and career readiness skills, complete California's high school requirements for graduation, and pursue college-level courses for college credit. Through Project Change, students have access to in-person classes at the Juvenile Hall as well as asynchronous classes online. Office of Education staff also provide counseling support for graduates seeking college degrees, including those seeking four-year degrees through programs such as Project Rebound at San Francisco State University. The Office of Education's college counselor also participates in monthly multi-disciplinary team meetings with secure track students. College students also receive tutoring online and in person.

The Juvenile Hall further supports the educational goals of minors and nonminors in the target population by providing dedicated computer terminals and access to technology on the secure track/long-term housing unit that enables students to conduct research and complete college courses while outside of school, based on guidelines provided by the Board of State and Community Corrections.

Programs Outside of the Juvenile Hall

The County contracts with three community-based organizations to provide programs for minors and nonminors outside of the Juvenile Hall who are awaiting adjudication or have been placed under community supervision (i.e., placed on probation in the community).

Behavioral Health and Recovery Services

The Juvenile Hall offers trauma-informed, culturally competent behavioral health services to justice-involved minors and nonminors inside the Juvenile Hall as well as in the community. Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (BHRS), a division of the San Mateo County Health System, provides individual, group, and family therapy, court-ordered mental health evaluations, psychotropic medication management, and provides resources and support to families with children in the juvenile justice system. Clinicians coordinate crisis response and short-term interventions for individuals detained in the Juvenile Hall. This includes clients experiencing acute psychiatric and/or psychosocial crises. The Youth Services Center BHRS team also coordinates crisis response for after-hours, weekends, and holidays through an After-Hours On-Call Clinician rotation.

FY 2024–25 snapshot data show about 27 active cases and 13 involving psychotropic medication on the 15th of each month.

Clinicians provide therapy services using a variety of evidence-based modalities, such as dialectical behavioral therapy (DBT), cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), and trauma-focused cognitive behavioral therapy (TF-CBT). Other approaches include eye movement desensitization reprocessing, motivational interviewing, art therapy, attachment therapy, internal family systems, structural family therapy, and acceptance and commitment therapy. Clinicians collaborate with probation staff and community-based organizations and participate in multi-disciplinary meetings to help meet the treatment needs of minors and non-minors in the juvenile justice system.

In 2024, the Probation Department collaborated with BHRS to create and fund an Alcohol and Other Drugs Case Manager position embedded within the BHRS clinical team. The position has since been filled, with the Case Manager scheduled to begin providing substance use prevention, intervention, and treatment services to minors and nonminors housed at the Juvenile Hall at the end of February 2026.

Key responsibilities will include:

- 1) Specialized Services: Provide specialized alcohol and other drug services tailored to the unique needs of justice-involved minors and nonminors. Services will be culturally responsive, gender-responsive, and trauma-informed. This involves assessing and addressing substance abuse issues within the context of their broader challenges.
- 2) Therapeutic Interventions: Conduct Co-occurring group therapy, individual therapy, and family therapy sessions to address the multifaceted needs of the clients. These sessions aim to provide a supportive environment for addressing substance abuse, trauma, and behavioral issues.
- 3) Case management: Offer comprehensive case management services to ensure continuity of care and support for justice-involved youth and young adults. This includes coordinating with various agencies and professionals involved in the minor/nonminor’s life to ensure holistic support.

- 4) Multidisciplinary Team (MDT) Collaboration: Actively participate in Multidisciplinary Team meetings and other collaborative efforts to ensure coordinated care and alignment of services with the needs of the minors and nonminors. This involves sharing insights, providing updates, and contributing to the development of comprehensive treatment plans. These treatment plans will also include comprehensive re-entry planning as clinically appropriate.
- 5) Relationship Building: Foster constructive working relationships with justice-involved youth and young adults and collaborate closely with multiple agencies involved in their care. This entails effective communication, advocacy, and coordination to facilitate clients' access to necessary services and support systems.
- 6) Referral and Networking: Facilitate referrals to external agencies and resources as needed, ensuring that minors and nonminors receive the continuum of care required for their rehabilitation and well-being. This involves staying updated on available resources and networking with relevant stakeholders to expand support options.

The table below summarizes the services provided by Behavioral Health and Recovery Services as of fiscal year 2025-26.

Behavioral Health Service	Description
Neurosequential Model of Therapeutics	Clinicians gather information through assessments to identify problems, key strengths, and the application of interventions in a way that helps families, educators, therapists, and others best meet the needs of in-custody minors and nonminors.
Intake and Screening	The BHRS clinical team provides initial screening and assessment of minors and nonminors arrested anywhere within San Mateo County on first-time offenses, or those who commit new crimes more than six months after the termination of their last probation. Additionally, the team assesses minors and nonminors with out-of-custody matters to determine eligibility for diversion programs and/or to develop treatment plans that include community referrals and probation supervision. The team screens and assesses past and current juvenile justice, behavioral health, and social services issues or concerns. The team also identifies problem areas related to school attendance, behavior, academic performance, and substance use/abuse.
Individual Therapy/Counseling Services	Individual therapy is offered upon intake to all minors and nonminors detained at the Juvenile Hall. Additionally, referrals may come from the court, probation, correctional health, Office of Education, parents, community-based providers, or minors and nonminors who self-refer. In compliance with state regulations, minors and nonminors who have behavioral health services included in an Individualized Education Program or are prescribed psychotropic medications are routinely provided with therapeutic services.
Case Management Services	Staff support minors and nonminors and families with links to resources to help with re-entry into the community, which may include linkage to SUD treatment services
Intensive Care Coordination	Targeted case management facilitates assessment of care planning for and coordination of services, including urgent services, for Medi-Cal beneficiaries with intensive needs.
Family Therapy	Clinicians provide family therapy to adolescents returning home from Juvenile Hall and out-of-home placements, in addition to minors and nonminors detained at the Juvenile Hall. Clinicians are equipped to provide culturally and linguistically responsive services to this diverse population, which includes a significant number of families from Mexico and Central America. Clinicians collaborate with probation staff and community-based service providers to provide effective case management, crisis intervention, and family support within a family-focused, best-practices model.

24/7 Crisis Support	Clinicians coordinate crisis response and short-term interventions for minors and nonminors detained in the Juvenile Hall. This includes minors and nonminors experiencing acute psychiatric and/or psychosocial crises. The BHRS team also coordinates crisis response for after-hours, weekends, and holidays through an After-Hours On-Call Clinician rotation.
Group Therapy	Group therapy is provided with a focus on behavioral health concerns, such as depression, anxiety, posttraumatic stress disorder, body image issues, emotional regulation, self-esteem, grief, intimate partner violence, and substance use. The structure of the group may be psychoeducational, skills development, a support group, or an interpersonal processing group. Clinicians provide therapeutic interventions using a trauma-focused lens and therapeutic activities such as multimedia, gardening, drumming, running, art, and music to promote healing and positive change.
Family Partner Services	A Behavioral Health and Recovery Services Family Partner staff member assists parents of minors and nonminors involved with the juvenile justice system in navigating court and legal processes. The Family Partner can help connect families to other agencies that provide housing, food, immigration, and other services, and provide insights to probation staff for more effective case management.
Psychotropic Medication Management	A psychiatrist provides psychotropic medication management for the minors and nonminors inside the Juvenile Hall. The referrals are either generated by correctional health staff, clinicians, parents, or self-referrals. The psychiatrist also works closely with clinicians to ensure continuity of care upon a client's release from the Juvenile Hall.
Court-Ordered Psychological or Psychiatric Evaluation	The staff psychologist and psychiatrist are responsible for the completion of court-ordered psychological or medication evaluations. These evaluations help determine optimal treatment planning or placement options for minors and nonminors.
Consultation and Education	Questions, issues, and concerns related to concerns about the behavioral health needs or status of minors and nonminors are provided to staff members representing Juvenile Institutions, Juvenile Probation, Correctional Health, and the County Office of Education
Alcohol and Other Drug Case Manager	Provides an Alcohol and Other Drugs Case Manager who conducts assessments and provides education about the risks of substance use, as well as addresses broader challenges.

Transitional Housing and Aftercare	Includes case management services and support for young adults ages 18 to 25 who have aged out of the child welfare system.

Progress Update

Since May 1, 2025, the County has made progress in the following areas related to programs and services:

- Request for Proposals: Issued a new RFP in Fall 2025 for programs and services serving youth in Juvenile Hall and the SOARR program, building on the Local Action Plan (LAP) completed and approved by the JJCC in 2025 to guide the next multi-year contracting cycle.
- Pine Grove Fire Camp: Entered into a new three-year agreement with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), approved in January 2026, to support potential placement of eligible SOARR youth and young adults at Pine Grove Youth Conservation Camp as part of the County’s less restrictive placement continuum.
- Live in Peace: Completed a new contract with Live in Peace in November 2025 to provide in-custody programming for youth in Juvenile Hall, including life coaching and reentry planning, alcohol and other drug (AOD) education, wellness programming, college and trade support, and crisis intervention services.
- Higher Education: The SOARR educational programs have continued to demonstrate a high level of intentional cross-agency collaboration. Through these coordinated efforts, students are provided with meaningful access to educational opportunities that support both academic progress and long-term postsecondary success. During the 2024–25 academic year, San Mateo County Community College District Project Change supported seven SOARR youth enrolled in online and in-person courses and ten dual-enrollment high school students from Hillcrest. Course offerings included college success, math, and ethnic studies classes, along with wraparound services. In May 2025, three SOARR students graduated from Skyline College, earning a total of six associate degrees with an average GPA of 3.34, and all transitioned successfully to California State University campuses. In the 2025–26 academic year, Project Change continues to support seven SOARR youth and ten dual-enrollment Hillcrest students through a combination of online and in-person coursework, with expanded offerings in career planning, public speaking, and ethnic studies. Additionally, in August 2025, three SOARR students enrolled in four-year universities. One student is majoring in Business at San Francisco State, another is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) at Sonoma State, and a third is working toward a degree in Kinesiology at CSU Monterey Bay. The current education program reflects the strength of collaboration among the San Mateo County Probation Department, San Mateo Community College District Project Change, California State Universities Project Rebound programs, and the County Office of Education
- Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse: The Probation Department continues its partnership with Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse (CORA), a San Mateo County–based nonprofit, to provide healthy relationship workshops tailored to various age groups, including transition-aged youth. CORA also facilitates workgroups for parents of incarcerated minors and nonminor dependents. These services are available to youth housed in Juvenile Hall, including those within the target population.

- Fresh Lifelines for Youth: During the third quarter of this fiscal year (2024-25), Fresh Lifelines for Youth expanded its case management, career exploration, and reentry services for the secure track unit. The enhanced partnership with the County allows Fresh Lifelines for Youth to allocate two full-time case managers to the secure track population to support day-to-day issues that arise, build social and emotional learning skills, provide career readiness and life skills, establish credible messenger opportunities, and support step-down opportunities.

PART 4: JUVENILE JUSTICE REALIGNMENT BLOCK GRANT FUNDS (WELF. & INST. CODE § 1995(D)(3))

Describe how the County plans to apply grant funds to address the mental health, sex offender treatment, or related behavioral or trauma-based needs of the target population. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

Beginning this fiscal year, the County is using JJRBG funds to support both County staffing and contracts with community-based organizations providing services within the facility. This is the first fiscal year JJRBG funds have been used to support staffing for the Phoenix Re-Entry Program (PREP) and the Success and Opportunities Aspiring Readiness for Reentry (SOARR) program. PREP and SOARR staff deliver services, support effective operations, and serve as key liaisons between youth, community-based providers, and deputy probation officers.

Grant funds continue to support contracts with four community-based organizations whose programs address the mental health, behavioral health, and trauma-based needs of the target population, with an emphasis on Secure Youth Treatment Facility residents. These contracts are described in the table below and were awarded through a multi-year planning process that involved:

- 1) Stakeholder workshops in 2021, conducted in conjunction with the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council, to identify service gaps for anticipated Secure Youth Treatment Facility placements.
- 2) A request for proposals was released in 2022 to address the identified service gaps.
- 3) Three-year contracts awarded to four nonprofits in June 2023.

Progress Update

Since May 1, 2025, the County has made progress in the following areas related to mental health, sex offender treatment, or related behavioral or trauma-based needs of the target population:

- Request for Proposals: Issued a new RFP in Fall 2025 for programs and services serving youth in Juvenile Hall and the SOARR program, building on the Local Action Plan (LAP) completed and approved by the JJCC in 2025 to guide the next multi-year contracting cycle.

Moving forward, the County will continue to explore opportunities to expand services to meet the mental health and behavioral or trauma-based needs of the target population, with an emphasis on further developing its secure track program.

Describe how the County plans to apply grant funds to address support programs or services that promote healthy adolescent development for the target population. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

In June 2023, San Mateo County used grant funds to award contracts to four community-based organizations whose programs promote healthy adolescent development. These programs are shown in the table below.

Selected Grantees	Funded Programs	Funding Source
Fresh Lifelines for Youth, Inc.	Weekly law-related education and career and education-focused workshops, plus in-custody case management and coaching, and ongoing planning process to build out future Secure Youth Treatment Facility services.	Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant

Progress Update

Since May 1, 2025, the County has made progress in the following areas related to the healthy adolescent development of the target population:

- Pine Grove Fire Camp: Entered into a new three-year agreement with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR), approved in January 2026, to support potential placement of eligible SOARR youth and young adults at Pine Grove Youth Conservation Camp as part of the County's less restrictive placement continuum.
- Live in Peace: Completed a new contract with Live in Peace in November 2025 to provide in-custody programming for youth in Juvenile Hall, including life coaching and reentry planning, alcohol and other drug (AOD) education, wellness programming, college and trade support, and crisis intervention services.
- Mural Project Summer 2025: Completed a large-scale, colorful exterior mural at the Youth Services Center in Summer 2025 through an amended contract with DeAndre Drake, enhancing the visual environment of the inner quad and adjacent housing units.

Moving forward, the County will continue to explore opportunities to expand services that promote the healthy adolescent development of the target population, with an emphasis on further developing the County's secure-track program. This may include adding services that grow with minors and non-minors over the years, support healthy relationships and social-emotional learning skills within and beyond the institution, and allow and support young people to practice decision-making, learning from failure, and managing autonomy.

Describe how the County plans to apply grant funds to address family engagement in programs for the target population. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

San Mateo County continues to explore ways to apply grant funds to address family engagement in programs for the target population after unfortunately receiving no proposals for parenting or family therapy programs in our fiscal year 2022-23 request for proposals process. The County is interested in rebuilding programs that strengthen family connections, such as the "Parent Project" and "Staying Connected with your Teen," as well as expanding programs for minors and non-minors in custody who are already parents themselves.

At the same time, the County continues to support existing partnerships and services that indirectly address family engagement. For example, through the County's partnership with Fresh Lifelines for Youth, young people develop social-emotional learning skills to better interact with people in their lives, often family. When family members are supportive, Fresh Lifelines for Youth helps them understand how their children may need their guidance, advocacy, or support to navigate justice, education, healthcare, and other systems. Additionally, in August 2024, the County partnered with Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse to provide workshops for the parents of incarcerated youth, as well as programs for youth inside the Juvenile Hall.

Other programs and activities that address family engagement for the target population include the following:

- Family Nights inside the Juvenile Hall.
- Family therapy.
- Home Passes for minors and non-minors enrolled in the Phoenix Re-Entry Program.
- Visits have been expanded to include extended family and supportive, positive adults, per the Youth Bill of Rights.
- Video calling via tablet computers for minors and non-minors inside the Juvenile Hall.

Describe how the County plans to apply grant funds to address reentry, including planning and linkages to support employment, housing, and continuing education for the target population. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

Comprehensive Reentry Planning for Secure Track Youth & Young Adults

The County is committed to developing individualized reentry and step-down plans for secure-track youth and young adults, focusing on education, vocational training, behavioral health, housing, family reunification, and other identified needs (see Part 3, Less Restrictive Programs). Probation will collaborate with system partners to support strategies that integrate services and support during incarceration and after release to ensure a seamless transition.

Fresh Lifelines for Youth

The County is currently using grant funds to partner with Fresh Lifelines for Youth to provide re-entry case management and career navigation workshops for the target population, with an emphasis on secure-track minors and non-minors. This year, Fresh Lifelines for Youth expanded its services to include an average of three workshops per month in our facility, including career and education-focused workshops, and twice-weekly one-on-one case management in addition to meetings with school counselors and other partners. The provider will offer support in the implementation of step-down opportunities where youth will be able to practice skills outside the facility and begin the community reintegration process, which is vital to successful reentry. Fresh Lifelines for Youth also provides up to eight pro-social community activities annually for young people receiving re-entry case management services to further enforce pro-social attitudes, behaviors, and healthy activities with peers.

Success Centers

In addition, the County is using grant funds to partner with Success Centers to provide job-readiness training, computer literacy classes, and “employment spotlights” for young people inside the Juvenile Hall, also with an emphasis on secure-track detainees. The County will continue to explore partnership opportunities with Success Centers’ community-based services, including the Green Construction Program, a 16-week program based in San Francisco that integrates construction training with life skills training, academics, career coaching, and job placement services.

Workforce Development Initiative

San Mateo County, with the Office of Education as the lead agency, was awarded grant funding in 2024 through the Office of Youth and Community Restoration to participate in a workforce development program. This initiative connects justice-involved minors and nonminors (ages 16 to 25) with education and vocational services, enhancing reentry planning and employment opportunities within the Juvenile Hall.

Implementation and Goals

Launched in July 2024, the program is led by a Workforce Development Navigator in the Office of Education who collaborates with the Department of Rehabilitation (DOR), NovaWorks, and Fresh Lifelines for Youth. Key services include educational counseling for high school students and vocational rehabilitation, such as providing work-related clothing and tools. Goals include increasing access to educational workforce resources, expanding career pathways, and addressing barriers to employment.

Eligibility and Referral Process

DOR services require documentation of a disability, typically through an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or 504 Plan. Youth on medication for emotional or behavioral health issues may qualify through Behavioral Health and Recovery Services (BHRS).

- The Navigator refers eligible high school students from the Juvenile Hall and Gateway Community School and accepts referrals from Deputy Probation Officers for out-of-custody youth. Secure track youth and young adults could be referred upon release if they meet DOR eligibility requirements.
- Non-qualifying youth may access services through NovaWorks.
- Once referred, participants meet with a DOR counselor, though maintaining post-release contact remains challenging, according to the Navigator.

Program Duration and Tracking

Basic counseling may last several years. Vocational rehabilitation follows a structured plan and may last up to two years. Efforts are underway to establish a tracking system to monitor service completion and outcomes.

Referral Data and Service Engagement

As of February 2026, 51 youth have been referred to DOR services. The Navigator provides ongoing referral data and updates as the program grows.

Describe how the County plans to apply grant funds to address evidence-based, promising, trauma-informed and culturally responsive programs or services for the target population. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

For several years, the San Mateo County Probation Department has prioritized using evidence-based practices among its contracted service providers. The Department works with its contracted program evaluator, Applied Survey Research, to verify programs as “evidence-based” or as “promising practices.” The table below details the practices reported by Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant-funded service providers.

Describe whether and how the County plans to apply grant funds to include services or programs for the target population that are provided by non-governmental or community-based providers. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(2) and (d)(8)):

As of fiscal year 2025-26, San Mateo County is using grant funds to support contracts with five community-based organizations, as summarized below.

Selected Grantees	Funded Programs
Fresh Lifelines for Youth, Inc.	Weekly law-related education and career and education-focused workshops, plus in-custody case management and coaching, and an ongoing planning process to build out future Secure Youth Treatment Facility services.
The Beat Within (A member of Intersection for the Arts)	Weekly creative and literary arts programming, enabling transition-aged youth to develop pro-social skills, including positive self-esteem building, positive social interactions, and positive relationship building with instructors.

Provide a detailed facility plan indicating which facilities the county will use to house or confine realigned youth at varying levels of offense severity and treatment need. Include the following (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(4)):

- Any less restrictive programs the county uses, and whether those programs are in facilities regulated by Subchapter 5 (commencing with Section 1300) of Chapter 1 of Division 1 of Title 15 of the California Code of Regulations
- Any county juvenile facility improvements made to support long-term commitments
- How the county will ensure youth safety and protection, including for youth of different ages, genders, special needs, and other relevant characteristics

Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(8)):

Confinement of Minors/Nonminors in the Target

San Mateo County operates one secure juvenile detention facility, the Youth Services Center-Juvenile Hall, which houses the County's secure track program. The facility also contains short-term and general population placements based on the therapeutic detention model described in Part 4, as well as the Phoenix Reentry Program through which long-term detainees may qualify to receive services in the community or earn home passes to spend time with family before their release.

Physical improvements to the Juvenile Hall to accommodate long-term commitments include the addition of new furniture, career-technical education learning labs, computer tablets, an enhanced barber shop space, an incentives unit, a multisensory de-escalation room, computer stations for college-aged students, new kitchen equipment to allow for a culinary arts program, and additional security cameras to help ensure the safety of youth and staff.

Safety, Protection of Youth

As of fiscal year 2025-26, the Juvenile Hall operates three housing units to help ensure the safety and protection of minors and nonminors requiring different housing and program settings. In general, housing assignments are based on the following criteria, among others:

- Age
- Maturity
- Sophistication
- Charges and offense history
- Emotional stability
- Program needs
- Case status (e.g., pre- or post-disposition)
- Public safety considerations
- Medical/mental health considerations
- Physical disabilities
- Gender identity

Housing assignments are reviewed regularly and modified as needed to ensure residents receive the most appropriate and least restrictive housing assignments possible.

PART 6: RETAINING THE TARGET POPULATION IN THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM (WELF & INST. CODE § 1995(D)(5))

Describe how the plan will incentivize or facilitate the retention of the target population within the jurisdiction and rehabilitative foundation of the juvenile justice system, in lieu of transfer to the adult criminal justice system. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(8)):

San Mateo County remains committed to housing youthful offenders closer to their families and communities to improve re-entry outcomes. By continually evaluating and improving evidence-based programs and services within our secure track program to improve offender outcomes and meet public safety goals, the County aims to provide a powerful incentive to the juvenile court to retain as much of the target population as possible within the juvenile justice system instead of being transferred to the adult criminal justice system.

PART 7: REGIONAL EFFORT (WELF & INST. CODE § 1995(D)(6))

Describe any regional agreements or arrangements supported by the County's block grant allocation. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(8)):

There are no regional agreements or arrangements supported by San Mateo County's block grant allocation at this time.

PART 8: DATA (WELF & INST. CODE § 1995(D)(7))

Describe how data will be collected on youth served by the block grant. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(8)):

The San Mateo County Probation Department will collect data on youth served by the block grant through its case management system, service providers, and staff resources at the Juvenile Hall. A management analyst is assigned to oversee this data collection in coordination with the department's contracted programs evaluator, Applied Survey Research, to ensure accuracy, thoroughness, and meaningful reporting. The management analyst will track the size and demographics of the target population, including offense data, age, gender, race/ethnicity, and placements. In addition, the management analyst will work with Applied Survey Research and service providers to collect data on outcome measures for programs supported by block grant funds. The County intends to collect outcome measure data quarterly and report it annually to the Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council.

Describe outcome measures that will be utilized to measure or determine the results of programs and interventions supported by block grant funds. Describe any progress made on this element since the previous annual plan submission (Welf. & Inst. Code §1995(d)(8)):

As part of its request for proposals process in fiscal year 2022-23, the San Mateo County Probation Department worked with selected community-based organizations to create outcome measures for programs supported by block grant funds. The table below describes those measures.

Grantee	Performance Measures

- Vocational program completion
- Incidents in the Juvenile Hall
- Discharges to community supervision
- Step-downs to less restrictive programs
- Violations and/or returns to Secure Youth Treatment Facility

PART 9: OTHER UPDATES: DESCRIBE ANY PROGRESS ON ELEMENTS SINCE THE PREVIOUS ANNUAL PLAN SUBMISSION: (WELF. & INST. CODE § 1995 (D)(8))

Provide a description of progress made regarding any plan elements and any objectives and outcomes in the prior year's plan, to the extent that they have not already been described above.

When the County issued its initial secure track RFP in 2022, only one individual had been committed to the program, which limited opportunities to develop scalable service partnerships at that time. As of FY 2025–26, the secure track population has grown to approximately eight individuals. Informed by this growth and the Local Action Plan, the County launched a new RFP in Fall 2025 to better align programs and services with current needs and capacity, while continuing to explore regional and state partnerships to address remaining service gaps.

Despite these early challenges, the County has made progress in the following areas, discussed in more detail in Part 3:

- Request for Proposals: Launched a new RFP in Fall 2025, informed by the Local Action Plan (LAP) approved by the JJCC in 2025, to fund the next multi-year cycle of programs and services.
- Higher Education: The County's secure track program has three students who graduated from Skyline College, with all students transitioning successfully to California State University campuses.
- Career Technical Education: The Career Technical Education Program offered through the San Mateo County Office of Education engages high school students who are in custody at the Juvenile Hall with real-world technology and problem-based, hands-on learning.
- Healthy Living Ambassador's Cooking Program: Probation has partnered with the University of California Cooperative Extension to implement a culinary arts program inside the Juvenile Hall.
- Tablets for the Juvenile Hall: Probation has partnered with Orijin, PBC to provide tablet computers to minors and nonminors inside the Juvenile Hall.
- Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse: The Probation Department has partnered with Community Overcoming Relationship Abuse, a San Mateo County-based nonprofit, to implement healthy relationships workshops and mental health groups tailored for different age groups, including transition-aged youth, as well as workgroups for the parents of incarcerated minors and nonminors.

- Alcohol and Other Disorder Case Manager: The Probation Department has collaborated with BHRS to create and fund an Alcohol and Other Disorder Case Manager position, which will be embedded within the BHRS clinical team. The position will provide substance abuse prevention, intervention, and rehab services to minors and nonminors at the Juvenile Hall, including those in the target population.
- Expansion of Services through Fresh Lifelines for Youth: In 2025, Fresh Lifelines for Youth expanded its case management, career exploration, and reentry services for secure track minors and nonminors. The enhanced partnership with the County allows Fresh Lifelines for Youth to allocate two full-time case managers to the secure track population to support day-to-day issues that arise, build social and emotional learning skills, provide career readiness and life skills, establish credible messenger opportunities, and support step-down opportunities.
- Mural Project Summer2025: The County completed a large-scale exterior mural at the Youth Services Center in Summer 2025, led by a professional community artist. The project engaged young people in a collaborative, creative process and resulted in an uplifting, colorful mural on the exterior of the school building facing the inner quad and housing units, supporting a more positive and rehabilitative facility environment.
- Pine Grove Fire Camp: This year, the Probation Department executed a three-year agreement with CDCR to support potential placement of eligible SOARR youth and young adults at Pine Grove Youth Conservation Camp as part of the County's less restrictive placement continuum.

As we continue to make progress in implementing these and other projects, the County looks forward to updating its plan in the future with the benefit of new knowledge, experience, and data regarding challenges, opportunities, and areas of need for the target population.

Report Submission Process

On or before October 1, 2025, each county is required to submit to the Office of Youth and Community Restoration (OYCR) a report on its Juvenile Justice Crime Prevention Act (JJCPA) and Youthful Offender Block Grant (YOBG) programs during the preceding year. For JJCPA this requirement can be found at Government Code \(GC\) Section 30061\(b\)\(4\)\(C\) and for YOBG it can be found at Welfare & Institutions Code Section \(WIC\) 1961\(c\). These code sections both call for a consolidated report format that includes a description of the programs and other activities supported by JJCPA and/or YOBG funds, an accounting of all JJCPA and YOBG expenditures during the prior fiscal year, and countywide juvenile justice trend data.

This template should be used to ensure your submission meets the accessibility standards published by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The standards are outlined here, Accessibility Conformance Checklists | HHS.gov.

Your submission will be posted to the OYCR website once it is confirmed to meet the accessibility standards. We encourage you to review your report for accuracy before sending it to the OYCR. Please review your submission for spelling and do NOT change the report form to a PDF document prior to submission.

Prior to submitting this report save the file using the following naming convention: "(County Name) 2025 JJCPA-YOBG Report." For example, Sacramento County would name its file "Sacramento 2025 JJCPA-YOBG Report".

Once the report is complete, attach the file to an email and send it to: OYCRgrants@chhs.ca.gov.

Analysis of Countywide Trend Data

Provide a summary description or analysis, based on available information, of how the programs, placements, services, strategies or system enhancements funded by JJCPA-YOBG have, or may have, contributed to, or influenced, the juvenile justice data trends identified in this report. Government Code Section 30061(b)(4)(C)(iv) & WIC Section 1961(c)(3):

Youth Arrest Trends

Juvenile arrests in San Mateo County fell substantially during the first year of the pandemic, followed by a gradual rebound and modest drop in 2024. Arrests declined from 769 in 2019 to 369 in 2020 and reached a low of 225 in 2021, reflecting lockdown restrictions. Arrests then rose to 437 in 2022 and peaked at 502 in 2023 before dropping to 419 in 2024. Both the modest decline in 2024 and the fact that arrests remain well below pre-pandemic levels are encouraging signs, suggesting that investments in prevention, intervention, and reentry services may be helping to stabilize youth involvement in the justice system.

System Involvement

DOJ data for 2024 show 515 referrals to the Probation Department, with 367 petitions filed – down from 733 referrals and 430 petitions filed in 2023. Most youth under wardship probation (170 cases) remained in their homes or with relatives, underscoring the County’s commitment to community-based responses over detention. While diversion programming remained limited, YOBG/JJCPA investments continue to support a continuum of community services designed to address underlying risk factors and reduce deeper system involvement.

Demographic Trends

Youth of color remain disproportionately represented at every point of the juvenile justice system. In 2024, Hispanic youth accounted for 59% of arrests and Black youth 20%, compared with smaller shares of the overall county population. White youth represented 9% of arrests, with other racial groups making up 13%. Similar disparities appear in petitions filed, where Hispanic and Black youth together comprised more than 75% of arrests and referrals in both 2023 and 2024. Males consistently represented about three-quarters of arrests and referrals. These disparities highlight the continued importance of culturally responsive and equity-focused programming, which remains central to all JJCPA-YOBG-funded initiatives.

Program Impact

JJCPA-YOBG funding supported a wide range of programs, services, and system enhancements in 2024-2025, including:

- Legal Education & Case Management: Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY) delivered its Law and Leadership Program, reentry case management, mentoring, and career pathways navigation, supporting at-risk youth, youth on probation, and detained youth.
- Career & Workforce Development: Success Centers offered year-round job readiness training and employer connections for youth in the community as well as in detention.
- Behavioral Health & Trauma-Informed Services: StarVista provided substance use and mental health counseling through the Insights Program and Victim Impact Awareness services for South County; Behavioral Health & Recovery Services delivered mental health services for detained youth.
- Family Support & Preservation: Family Preservation Program and HSA services focused on family stability and parenting skills.
- Creative & Wellness Interventions: Programs like the Art of Yoga Project, Beat Within, and Therapeutic Beat Making offered yoga, creative writing, and hip-hop production workshops to enhance resilience and promote emotional expression.
- Emotional Regulation & Victim Impact Awareness: YMCA offered anger management programs at the YSC-Juvenile Hall, as well as Victim Impact Awareness services in North County.
- Sexual Violence Prevention: YMCA also offered its Sexual Violence Prevention Program to youth on probation.
- Reentry & Transitional Support: The Phoenix Reentry Program, led by YSC staff, provided reentry support for long-term youth; Probation Officers provided intensive supervision and case management to ensure positive outcomes.
- Evaluation and Oversight: Applied Survey Research provided CBO program evaluation and data analysis to measure impact and guide JJCPA-YOBS funding decisions.

Conclusion

San Mateo County's approach emphasizes rehabilitation and family preservation over incarceration, with nearly all youth on wardship probation placed at home or with relatives in both 2023 and 2024. Although arrests have risen since the pandemic low point, they remain well below pre-pandemic levels, while petitions filed continue to decline. Combined with sustained investment in culturally responsive programming, these trends point to meaningful progress toward a more equitable and rehabilitative juvenile justice system.

year irrespective of the fiscal year during which the funds were allocated.

Definitions of the budget line items are:

 - Professional Services includes all services provided by individuals and agencies with whom the County contracts. The county is responsible for reimbursing every contracted individual/agency.

Juvenile Probation's Diversion and Court Services serves as a primary point of entry for intake and assessment of youth who have contact with the juvenile justice system. The youth receive a risk and needs assessment, including screening for mental health, substance abuse, and other significant risk factors. Bilingual staff are available, and written materials are provided in both English and Spanish. Based upon the assessment findings, a recommendation and support/treatment services is completed and discussed with the youth's family. Diversion-eligible youth can be referred to a range of programs and services, including the Petty Theft Program, Juvenile Mediation Program, Victim Impact Awareness Program, and Traffic Court; youth may also be placed on short-term (3 months) or long-term (6 months) informal contracts.
