IV. Delinquency Prevention

- a. Education Code Section 48647: Transition planning for incarcerated youth incarcerated for 30 days or more.

Juvenile Justice Commission
Delinquency Prevention Commission

Joint Meeting Minutes

March 24, 2026, 5:15 - 7:15 p.m.

- a. Commissioner Rasmussen gave a brief history of the long standing issues youth have had enrolling in school upon their release from the juvenile hall. The problem is so prevalent that Judge Etezadi has drafted a letter that students bring with them when enrolling in school that outlines their right to enroll under the law. The Private Defender Program has also partnered with the Stanford Law Center, whose interns will actually go with students and parents to enroll the youths in school. Commissioner Rasmussen noted that she routinely receives calls from youth and families throughout the County who have been unable to enroll in school and personally accompanies them to complete the enrollment process. School districts have also reported a lack of coordination and communication with the San Mateo County Office of Education (SMCOE) and the lack of notice that these students are either returning or enrolling in school. Chief John Keene expressed frustration and reported that previous efforts to address the issue had been halted by legal counsel for the SMCOE. These critical gaps are causing students to sometimes miss weeks of school, require parents take off multiple days of work to enroll their children, and have even resulted in youth dropping out of school all together.
- b. It should be noted that last year, the average number of releases each month was 19, with a median length of stay is 25 days. Most youth do not even meet the 30 day threshold. These figures and experiences have consistently raised concerns regarding compliance with Education Code section 48647.
- c. The lack of educational transition planning have been raised in each of the commission's annual educational evaluations and the commission was advised by Sarah Notch, that the required policies and documents were in the process of being revised and not available.
- d. As of 2022, the SMCOE contracts with Dr. Jennifer Izant Gonzales, Senior Director of Alternative Education for the Santa Cruz County Office of Education to conduct its mandated Juvenile Court School Program Review and Evaluation. Dr. Izant- Gonzales has consistently reported compliance with Section 1370(g), despite documented evidence that the statutory and regulatory requirements were not being met.

Juvenile Justice Commission
Delinquency Prevention Commission

Joint Meeting Minutes

March 24, 2026, 5:15 - 7:15 p.m.

- e. The Commission's concerns were validated when Marco Chavez, Interim Superintendent of the San Mateo County Office of Education, reported to Commissioner Rasmussen that the SMCOE was not in compliance and lacked the required transition planning policies and MOUs with the Probation Department. There is pending state legislation that would also assign transition planning to County Office off Education, Probation, AND School Districts.
- f. Commissioner Rasmussen is now working with Superintendent Chavez and Moniay Wade, Deputy Probation Chief to ensure these policies are adopted by the County Board of Trustees and the MOU's are put in place, so transition planning can begin as soon as possible.

The following was read into the record at the April 28, 2026 meeting of the San Mateo County Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Commission

The Retirement of the Honorable Judge Susan I. Etezadi

I want to take a moment to recognize the retirement of Judge Etezadi, Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court.

Judge Etezadi has been a true champion for children. She has taken the time to listen to young people and their families, making thoughtful decisions grounded in the law, regardless of the political pressure or outside noise. Her focus has always remained clear: what is in the best interest of each child who comes before her.

Her role is hard. In fact, I can't think of a role in public service that is more difficult than that of the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile Court. Children are our future, families are delicate, and the responsibility of navigating the complex issues that bring them into her courtroom, and balancing public safety are immense. Yet her focus has remained on the best interests of each child who comes before her.

The Commission would like to thank her for being an unwavering champion for children, for her wisdom, leadership, and for the example she has set for all of us. For more than 41 years, Judge Etezadi has given her all to the people of San Mateo County, and she will be profoundly missed.

I am passionate about supporting education for kids and teens. I am hard working and persuasive and would like the opportunity to shift the discussion around juvenile justice with lawmakers and those who work with impacted youth. Most importantly I am hoping that my experience with formal research and data will help the commission to make changes to improve outcomes for youth.

I have done community organizing and advocacy since the 1990s. In my current role as Education Director and advocate for Latino and farmworker families, I work to support children and families who are frequently not served well by their schools and communities and advocate for changes. Work on the commission would continue this work and add a voice from the coast which is often left out of conversations in the county.

WHAT LANGUAGES DO YOU SPEAK? PLEASE LIST ALL LANGUAGES IN WHICH YOU CAN COMMUNICATE EFFECTIVELY Spanish—can read, write, speak and understand, Arabic is rusty but I can communicate verbally, DESCRIBE ANY EXPERIENCE YOU HAVE WORKING WITH CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND/OR FAMILIES, PARTICULARLY AT-PROMISE OR SYSTEM-IMPACTED YOUTH.

Most of my professional life has been working with at-promise and system impacted youth, both as a teacher and an advocate. I have a cousin with mental health problems that was first involved with the juvenile justice system at age 13. His mother, my aunt later began working at CYA as a medic to try to change what she felt was a broken system. I had friends in high school who were arrested for the same crimes and some went home while some got lengthy sentences. This continued as I began to work in schools

Legislative Mandate

- To receive state funds JJCPA and the JPAF Program require counties to establish and maintain a multi-agency council - San Mateo's Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council (JJCC)

California Youth Justice Summit

Heal the Past, Pave the Future: Watering the Seed from Youth Voice to Vision

October 5-7, 2026 | San Diego, CA

SUMMIT REGISTRATION AND HOTEL RESERVATION INFORMATION IS NOW OPEN/POSTED

WELCOME

The 2026 California Youth Justice Summit brings together leaders, practitioners, community organizations, and multidisciplinary partners committed to improving outcomes for youth across California. Hosted by the Office of Youth and Community Restoration (OYCR) in collaboration with OYCR Youth Advisory Board \(YAB\), the summit creates a space to share ideas, strengthen partnerships, and learn from innovative practices across the youth justice field. Participants will engage in meaningful conversations, explore solutions that center youth voice and community healing, and build connections that support lasting systems change. Join us to collaborate, learn, and help shape a stronger future for our youth and our communities.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT THE SUMMIT

The Summit is a great opportunity to:

- Build individual knowledge of best practices, innovations, discussions on complex issues, collaborative and creative solutions, and learnings that can be implemented sustainably when attendees return to their roles in their jurisdictions and communities.
- Access to a network of systems and support for technical assistance while meeting and expanding knowledge from current subject matter experts in the area of youth justice, trauma informed care, public-private collaborations, and cross-discipline partnerships.
- Examine and adopt best practices for youth justice targeted towards building systems for successful transition of youth into adulthood.
- Uplift the voice of youth and provide opportunity for our young people to be at the decision-making table. Youth should have a hand in developing or altering the policies, procedures and programs that affect them.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND THE SUMMIT

The Summit is designed for the community of Youth Justice partners: youth that are formerly system involved, practitioners serving the youth involved in the Justice System including probation, child welfare, behavioral health, education, community-based organizations, regional centers, District Attorneys, advocates, Public Defenders, resource families, judges, tribal communities, and policy advocates. Practitioners include frontline staff, supervisors, parents, guardians, youth partners, leadership, and others serving families and youth with juvenile system involvement.
