For Immediate Release - Notice of Vacancy

Farmworker Advisory Commission

The President of the Board of Supervisors Noelia Corzo announced that applications are being accepted for appointments to the San Mateo County Farmworker Advisory Commission.

There are currently one (1) vacancy. Eligible persons must be a resident of San Mateo County and be eligible from one of the following:

One (1) member representing Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) that serve & benefit the County's farmworker population, including organizations such as: Coastside Hope, Ayudando Latinos A Soñar (ALAS), and Puente de la Costa Sur.

To determine if you are a County resident as part of eligibility, enter your address on the map located at <https://bos.smcgov.org/>.

This ten-member Commission promotes programs and policies that address the unmet needs of farmworkers in San Mateo County. Potential areas of focus include: advising the Board of Supervisors and County agencies on effectively outreaching to farmworkers and their families; helping farmworkers and their families navigate public agencies and access benefits and services; raising awareness among farmworkers about labor laws and other protections; bringing visibility to issues that disproportionately affect farmworkers; and helping to build trust and relationships in the County's agricultural community, particularly between employers and employees.

The Commission meets on the 2nd Wednesdays of odd-numbered months from 7:00-8:30pm, alternating locations between the Half Moon Bay Library and Pescadero High School.

The deadline for receiving applications is Friday, August 21, 2026 at 5:00 PM and can be submitted online <https://www.smcgov.org/bnc/application-boards-commissions-and-committees>.

Applications in Spanish and Chinese are also available at the Commission link: <https://www.smcgov.org/ceo/farmworker-advisory-commission>.
