8. PRESENTATION: SAN MATEO COUNTY SHERIFF'S ACTIVITY LEAGUE

Speakers: Mason Lok

- Sheriff's Activity League (SAL) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit focused on helping youth through mentorship, leadership, and supportive programs that strengthen relationships among youth, families, deputies, and the community while promoting early prevention of truancy, delinquency, and juvenile justice involvement.
- SAL's four main focus areas are building proactive relationships; supporting academic achievement; promoting health, wellness, and sports; and developing youth leadership through mentoring, social-emotional learning, career/college preparation, and community partnerships.
- SAL serves about 105 high school students in its Redwood City/North Fair Oaks cohort, as well as youth from other schools including Half Moon Bay and Pescadero;
- Youth join through peer referrals, schools, and community outreach, with plans to expand to Millbrae.
- SAL assesses each youth's immediate academic and personal needs, connects them with mental-health and crisis resources when needed, provides tutoring and support, and maintains long-term mentoring relationships.
- Youth can earn sponsored trips by maintaining good grades and participating in community service.
- SAL prepares youth for future success through leadership roles, community-service projects, internships, career exploration, job training, college preparation, and support with scholarships, recommendations, and college applications.
- Youth reportedly average approximately 125 hours of community service per person per year.
- Students have received partial and full college scholarships and local, state, and national PAL recognition.
- Youth have served local advisory boards and commissions, and other civic leadership opportunities.

- Highlighted the upcoming Food, Wine, and Heroes event at Peninsula Golf & Country Club on October 10, which supports the program and recognizes Youth of the Year.

10. COMMISSIONER AND LIASION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Commissioners:

- Mateo Garcia is a 20-year-old bioengineering student at College of San Mateo and member of the San Mateo County Youth Commission. He is serving as the ICAC youth liaison to better understand barriers facing youth—including poverty, immigration status, and substance abuse—and bring their concerns to the commission through his new Supporting Systems subcommittee.

11. COMMISSIONER AND LIASION ANNOUNCEMENTS

Speaker: Captain Fogarty

- Captain Fogarty has been appointed to be the Liaison to ICAC and will work with the Commission as the representative of the Sheriff's Office.
- Will coordinate to bring a presenter to speak on the Transparency Dashboard.
- Invites ICAC or a member of ICAC to the Sheriff's Office meetings with Fixin' San Mateo that occur once every 6 or 7 weeks.
- The Sheriff's Office is in the process of hiring an ombuds person who will help improve responsiveness and effectiveness of the complaint process related to the correctional facilities. Will collaborate with the sheriff's office to identify opportunities of improvement and be a neutral resource for community members. Additionally, will conduct impartial reviews and recommend practical solutions.
