Their purpose is to advise the Board of Supervisors on disabilities-related issues, educate San Mateo County on the needs of people with disabilities, create oportunities for people with disabilities, and advocate for people with disabilities on systems issues. The Commission has done a number of events and outreach efforts such as: Present a report to the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors in conjuction with Disabilities Awareness Month in October Hold an Art Showcase/Silent Auction featuring Artists with Disabilities Currently, the Commission has two vacancies and they are seeking applicants. Councilmember Rafael Avendano asked if the Commission on Disabilities has a newsletter that the Council can help promote. Ligia mentioned that they do not have a newsletter but they have a website where people can find more information about the Commission. Councilmember Beatriz Cerillo ask if there is any outreach done with regards to voter registration. Ligia mentioned that it's one of the many outreach events that the commission does. Sheriff Greg Munks presented the following summary: The North Fair Oaks Festival will be on August 16 th 2015. The purpose of the festival is to build community and create sense of place for the North Fair Oaks Community. To date, the festival has raised over $400,000. The festival has been a welcoming event that features live entertainment.	Sheriff Munks will share more specifics about the youth programs and where the money goes.
	 The funds raised from the Festival support the Sheriff's Youth Programs. Councilmember Mary Martinez asked which youth programs are specific to geographic locations and which ones aren't.
	Specific to geographic locations and which ones aren t.

Sheriff Munks stated that many of the youth programs are open to youth stroughout San Mateo County. Other programs are targeted for specifically for coastside or bayside communities. Councilmember Laura Caplan asked what is being done to facilitate conversations between the businesses and the Festival. Catherine Tompkinson, Festival Director, mentioned that some of the local businesses are on the Queen of the Festival Committee and that businesses are open during the Festival. Sheriff Munks mentioned that clustering like agencies together would help people know where to find information. Veronica, Circulo Cultura, mentioned that the Festival has provided resources to the community and the Queen of the Festival provides scholarship to young girls to the North Fair Oaks area. Jim, Queen of the Festival Committee, mentioned that the Queen of the Festival program has provided an awareness of North Fair Oaks. He appreciates all the efforts that the Festival has done toward providing opportunities to youths. Beto Chavez, NFO Business, mentioned that the Queen of the Festival has been a showcase for North Fair Oaks. He appreciates all the efforts and the funds that have been raised for youth programs.
