

CENSUS 2020: EVERYONE COUNTS

WHAT IS THE CENSUS?

- Official count of every person living in the US
  - Who lives where
  - Basic information
- Happens every 10 years
- Each household is asked to complete a census form online or on paper
- Information collected is reported as statistics
(No individual details shared)

NEXT CENSUS DAY: APRIL 1, 2020

WHAT IS CENSUS DATA USED FOR?

- To give funding for education, health, child care, transportation, and community programs
- To make sure all residents are represented fairly in local, state, and national government
- To help community leaders, businesses, and nonprofits make good decisions about programs and policies

Businesses use census data to decide where to build factories, offices and stores, which create jobs.

Local governments use the census for public safety and emergency preparedness.

Real estate developers use the census to build new homes and revitalize old neighborhoods.

WHAT WILL CENSUS 2020 ASK?

- Basic information about each household:
  - Number of people living there
  - Home ownership
  - Phone number
- For each person living in household:
  - Name
  - Sex
  - Age/Date of Birth
  - Race/Ethnicity
- Census 2020 might ask about citizenship status
  - Whether or not a citizen
  - Not whether someone is here legally

Is this person a citizen of the United States?

Yes, born in the United States

Yes, born in Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or Northern Marianas

Yes, born abroad of U.S. citizen parent or parents

Yes, U.S. citizen by naturalization – Print year of naturalization ↘

No, not a U.S. citizen

HOW DATA IS KEPT PRIVATE AND SECURE

- By law, the information you give on the census form is confidential.
- The Census Bureau has different ways to protect your personal information:
  - Computer technologies
  - Statistical methodologies
  - Security procedures
- Your responses will be combined with information from other households to produce statistics, so people in your household will not be individually identified.
- All staff at the Census Bureau take an oath for life to protect the privacy of responses collected, and sharing any details is a federal crime
  - Fine of up to $250,000
  - Federal prison sentence of up to 5 years

WHO SHOULD BE COUNTED IN THE CENSUS?

- EVERYONE!
- Make sure the head of your household counts everyone living there including:
  - Children of all ages
  - Extended family members like grandparents, aunts/uncles
  - Non-family members like friends, roommates or workmates

3 OUT OF 4 CALIFORNIANS BELONG TO
