Update on County Response to COVID-19

Redwood City – The County of San Mateo continues to work to protect public health and safety in response to the novel coronavirus known as COVID-19.

The County of San Mateo's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) remains open to coordinate countywide response and communications in response to the situation. The EOC's Joint Information Center will provide daily status reports Monday through Friday until further notice. Today's report:

Three Sites Offer COVID-19 Testing Before July 4th Holiday

Three of the rotating COVID-19 testing locations – San Mateo, Half Moon Bay and North Fair Oaks – have appointments available in the days leading up to July 4. No cost testing is open to all residents. Appointments are required and can be scheduled up to three days in advance, but no earlier, through Project Baseline, the state's no-cost testing provider in San Mateo County, at <https://bit.ly/2xk73OL>
