SAN MATEO COUNTY
Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY CELEBRATION
MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 2015

Submit nominations for the:
Annual Dorothy Boyajian Honored Teacher Award

A San Mateo County teacher who embodies the spirit of Dr. King will be honored at the County's longest standing MLK Day Celebration.

This is your opportunity to nominate a San Mateo County teacher who:

- Reflects the teaching role of Dr. King,
- Inspires students in the areas of justice, understanding, civic engagement and diversity awareness, and
- Fosters a commitment to community building.

To nominate a teacher please provide:

- Your name and contact information,
- The teacher's name, school, grade or subject taught, and
- A short statement of endorsement about the teacher's commitment to social justice (up to 350 words).

Please send your nomination information by Monday, November 10, 2014 to info@mlksmc.com. Selected teachers and nominators will be contacted in December.

Selected teacher(s) will be recognized at the 16th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration at the Downtown San Mateo Caltrain Station. The Celebration begins at 8:30 a.m. Those who wish to participate in the march on the Yerba Buena Center in San Francisco are encouraged to take the 10:05 Caltrain. Regular pricing and holiday train schedules apply.
