Supervisor Carole Groom invited everyone to sign up for her Active San Mateo Conference at the Belmont Library on Friday, October 20th on the topic of historic tourism. Please call 650-363-4568 for registration and information.

Supervisor Warren Slocum shared that November's Veterans Luncheon has 250 attendees, giving thanks to his staff Marci Dragun, Maya Perkins, and Irving Torres for taking on this project. The Immigrant Summit is taking place tomorrow at the Fox Theater with 150 people signed up, giving special thanks to Irving Torres. The Domestic Violence Awareness Month event is taking place this Saturday in Daly City at Gellert Park. He asked that some time after the November elections and before the June Primary elections regarding security. He suggested that the ISD Department, Mr. Mark Church and his election team, and a representative from the Secretary of State brief the board regarding the security measures that have been put in place.

Supervisor Canepa shared that the American Experience was a successful event, giving special thanks to the HSA Director Iliana Rodriguez and staff for their work. Special acknowledgment was given to Jack Broadband for providing 400 masks to people for free with respect to the poor air quality resulting from the North Bay Fires.

Supervisor Pine shared that there will be a celebration of the one year anniversary of one year enrollment of Peninsula Clean Energy. He also shared that he spent Monday, October 17th with a number of designers from a competition funded by the Rockefeller Foundation called "Resiliency by Design," where design teams would design a resilient shoreline, and were given a comprehensive tour of our bayshore. He also expressed how all of our hearts and prayers go out to Sonoma County at this time, and we would be well served to have a Study Session on Emergency Preparedness.

Supervisor Horsley gave special thanks to the first responders from our agencies who assisted in the North Bay Fires and would like more attention focused on preventative work in our County.

CLOSED SESSION

The Board recessed to Closed Session at 1:09 p.m. and reconvened at 1:38 p.m. with the following report made by John C. Beiers, County Counsel:

The Board authorized the filing of an amicus brief in support of a Colorado Civil Rights Commission in the 2015 decision by the Colorado Court of Appeals in the matter of Craig v. Masterpiece Cakeshop, Inc. Masterpiece Cakeshop, Inc. has appealed this Colorado decision to the U.S. Supreme Court, and oral argument is scheduled for December 5, 2017. The crux of the case is as follows: In 2012, a same-sex couple visited a bakery in Colorado and requested the owner bake them a wedding cake to celebrate their nuptials. The baker informed the couple that he does not make wedding cakes for same-sex couples. The couple then filed a discrimination case.

The San Mateo County LGBTQ Commission recommended that the Board of Supervisors weigh in on this decision, and the Board in today’s Closed Session has unanimously agreed to do so.
